American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Dear [nominee]:

You have been nominated for the AADPRT Steering Committee Leadership Track, including the position of 2029 Annual Meeting Program Chair. By advancing your nomination, you agree to serve in each of the Steering Committee roles over the six-year track beginning March, 2027. Please click here for a description of each role and the leadership track's timeline.

The Nominating Committee (NC) requests the following via this form by November 30, 2026, 5pm ET:

- An updated CV
- A one-page personal statement describing your:
  - Vision, goals, and reasons for wanting to help lead AADPRT
  - Your contributions to, and engagement in, AADPRT to date (e.g., # of workshops, project leads, chair positions, membership on committees/caucus/taskforces, etc.)
  - Relevant leadership experience outside of AADPRT
  - Short and long-term career goals

By November 30, 2026, 5pm ET, schedule your 30-minute interview in December or January.

At least three members of the NC will conduct the interview via Zoom. You will be asked the following questions:

1. What is your vision for AADPRT? What would your principal priorities and goals be?
2. Why do you want to be the Program Chair elect and in AAPDRT leadership?
3. Describe your contributions to AADPRT and their impact.
4. Of all of your leadership experiences in or out of AADPRT, what are you most proud of and why?
5. How are you going to manage the workload with your current day position?
6. How will you advance equity?

Interviews will be recorded so all NC members can review them.

To evaluate each nominee, the NC will use a rubric that includes the following factors:

1. Vision
2. Motivation
3. AADPRT contributions and service
4. Leadership
5. Bandwidth
6. Potential to advance equity

Please note that if selected, you will be expected to join the 2028 AADPRT Annual Meeting Program Committee on the planning visit (at AADPRT's expense) scheduled April 11-13, 2027 at the Gaylord National Resort and Convention Center.

Nominations are still open for the NC. Once they close on 11/20/26, committee nominees will be vetted for any conflicts of interest given who the nominees are for the SC Leadership Track to avoid potential biases.

Warmly,
Tracey Guthrie, MD
Immediate Past President
Chair, Nominating Committee
