

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Judith Lewis, MD

AADPRT Position: Chair, Regional Representative Committee

Judith Lewis, MD is the Residency Training Director in Psychiatry at the University of Vermont Medical Center (UVMMC) and is Associate Professor at the University of Vermont College of Medicine (UVM COM). She did her residency training at Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital and then did psychoanalytic training at Columbia. When she moved to Vermont in 2003, she served as Director of Medical Student Education at UVM COM from 2004-2009 and then transitioned to residency training in 2009. In 2007, she received a grant to design multi-media modules which later won the 2010 ADMSEP Psychiatry Innovations Award. Her recent work has been on medical student mistreatment has been presented at ADMSEP and AADPRT, and published on MedEdPORTAL. She is an active member of the UVMMC GME committee, a Distinguished Educator at the UVM COM Teaching Academy, and is Chair of the Regional Representative Committee at AADPRT. Dr. Lewis has an interest in teaching psychoanalytic concepts, personality disorders, trauma and dissociative disorders, and mentoring trainees on educational scholarship projects.