AADPRT Abstract Submission

Submission Deadline: 11/1/2021

Welcome to the AADPRT 2022 Annual Meeting workshop and poster abstract submission system. Abstracts must be submitted via this system. Read ALL instructions before beginning your submission as significant changes have occurred for 2022.

- Only AADPRT members may submit an abstract.
- If the abstract is accepted, the submitting member will serve as the point of contact for all workshop or poster-related details leading up to the meeting.
- Disclosure forms will be collected for selected abstracts by the American Psychiatric Association December, 2021. Recipients will be sent a unique email link for completion. All presenters must complete to participate.
- Members may be included in a maximum of three workshop submissions.
- Maximum number of presenters for a workshop or poster is five. Exceptions won't be considered.
- A submission should not include special requests or program committee considerations in the body of the abstract.
- All workshop and poster participants must register and pay for the meeting should they wish to participate in the workshop or poster presentation.
- Please specify in the abstract if your workshop or poster has been produced by trainees with a faculty mentor/AADPRT member.
- During the submission process, you will have the option to save and return to your abstract submission prior to final submission.
- Once submission is complete you may not make changes to the material, including replacing participants.
- Scheduling requests will not be accepted.
- NEW: For 2022, workshops will be limited to 75 minutes inclusive of question and answer and there will be six sessions of 11 workshops each.
- If you are using slides, you must upload them to the AADPRT system no later than Thursday, February 17, 2022. This is not optional as it is an accreditation requirement.
- NEW: Abstracts that reflect the theme (Changing Self and Systems: Advancing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusivity in Residency Training) will be given priority.
- NEW: Abstracts of authorship teams that include first-time presenters and multiple programs will be given priority.
- COVID precautions will impact room used as well as number of participants.
- NEW: For this meeting, a subset of the accepted abstracts will be placed in one of three theme-focused tracks. An abstract does not need to fit within a track to be considered. You will be asked to indicate if your abstract fits well with one of the following tracks:
    o Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Anti-Racism, Anti-Oppression including recruitment, selection, retention, faculty, curriculum, assessment, society
    o Competency-Based Medical Education, including any of the following: formative assessment, summative assessment, workplace-based assessment, faculty development, coaching, direct observation, feedback, dashboards, clinical competence committees

- - Professional Identity Formation including any of the following: career development, mentorship, wholeheartedness, meaning/purpose, burnout

To submit an abstract, you must provide:

- Title
- Prior AADPRT meetings at which the workshop has been presented (if applicable)
- AADPRT Committee, Caucus, or Taskforce sponsoring workshop/poster (if applicable)
- NEW: The number of authors who, if accepted, would be first-time presenters at AADPRT.
- NEW: The number of programs represented amongst the authorship team.
- Primary, Secondary, and Tertiary Categories
- New: indication of whether you would like your abstract considered for a programming track
- Intended audience
- Educational Objective(s) - at least one linked to the Practice Gap
- Practice Gap (500 words or less)
- Scientific citations: How was the need for this activity brought to your attention? Include a link to any of the following: peer-reviewed journal articles, updated guidelines from medical societies, legislative, regulatory or organizational changes affecting patient care, or government produced documents describing educational need and/or physician practice gaps.
- Abstract (500 words or less)
- Brief, but specific, workshop agenda with intended audience specified (500 words or less). A time schedule for the activity components of the workshop should be provided. Remember, your workshop may not exceed 75 minutes inclusive of question and answer.
- Information for additional participants including:
  - Name only (if participant is a current AADPRT member)
  - Contact information (name, degrees, title, institution name, address, phone number, and email address) for any non-AADPRT members.

The review process:

- Submissions will be reviewed and ranked by the abstract selection committee.
- Selection criteria include educational value, audience appropriateness, topic diversity, connection to meeting theme, innovation and (for workshops) interactivity.
