

Rowan SOM Psychiatry

Osteopathic principles guide our training in the General Psychiatry program, bringing a unique quality of holistic care to the education and development of empathic psychiatrists. Our residents are exposed to a wide range of clinical experiences and patient populations throughout partnerships with local hospitals and community agencies. Our faculty prides itself on meeting the behavioral health needs of Southern New Jersey, while providing exceptional education for the physicians of tomorrow.