

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Ulrick Vieux, DO, MS

AADPRT Position: Treasurer

Dr. Ulrick Vieux is an Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Health at Hackensack Meridian School of Medicine. He is the Section Chief of the Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Division at HMH-Hackensack University Medical Center and is the Director of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Education and Training at HMH-Hackensack University Medical Center and is core faculty at the HMH-Hackensack University Medical Center General Psychiatry Residency tract. He completed his medical school education at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and his family medicine residency at the New York Medical College-Brooklyn-Queens Campus and his psychiatry residency and child and adolescent psychiatry fellowship at St. Luke's/Roosevelt Hospital in New York City. He has held academic appointments at Harvard, Columbia University, Mt. Sinai School of Medicine, Touro College of Osteopathic Medicine, Meharry School of Medicine and Hackensack Meridian School of Medicine. He is board certified in psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry and is board eligible for sports psychiatry. His area of interest is adhd, autism spectrum disorder, ocd, anxiety and depression, sports psychiatry, polycultural psychiatry, and medical education. He previously served as Chair of the JEDI committee and Interim Chair of the Dr. Iverson Bell, Jr. fellowship faculty award of AADPRT. He previously served as President of the West Hudson Psychiatric Society (APA district branch).