

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Sandra Sexson, MD

AADPRT Position: Liaison, CFAS/AAMC

Sandra B. Sexson, MD has been the Division Chief of Child, Adolescent, and Family Psychiatry and the Program Director for the Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship since 2004 and the Post Pediatric Portal Program since 2016, a program she helped develop nationally a decade ago. She is board certified in general psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry. Dr. Sexson is the 2017 Vestermark award winner, which “recognizes excellence, leadership, and creativity in the field of psychiatric education,” recipient of the 2018 Virginia Q. Anthony Woman Leader of the year, and the 2018 Castle Connolly Exceptional Woman in Medicine award, as well as being awarded yearly appointments as one of “America’s Top Doctors” She recently was named by Marquis Who’s Who to both Top Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Professionals and the Albert Nelson Lifetime Achievement Award. During her extensive career she has published widely in the literature, peer reviewed, review articles, chapters and two edited books. Dr. Sexson has held many positions in regional, national, and international organizations in educational leadership roles including AADPRT, AACAP, ABPN, AACAP, and has served on both national and international Review Committees.