

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Sandra M. DeJong, MD, MSc

AADPRT Position: Past Past President

Sandra DeJong (“DeYoung”) is Director of Training, Division of Child/Adolescent Psychiatry, Cambridge Health Alliance, Harvard Medical School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. She is in her 14th year as a CAP training director in a community-based, public sector system of care. Past and current academic interests include early onset psychosis, professionalism and technology, child mental health ethics, and teaching how to teach adult learners. At AADPRT, she has served as Chair of the Taskforce on Professionalism and the Internet, Chair of the Recruitment Committee, Program Chair, Secretary, and President-Elect. She has also served as Child PRITE editor.