

Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine

We are a combined civilian/military program that has a strong emphasis in psychotherapy, intellectual and developmental disability, addiction medicine, and aerospace psychiatry. All residents receive a robust community-psychiatry education experience at a wide range of community sites from tertiary hospital settings, community mental health centers to the mental health clinic at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. We have a strong tradition of producing excellent clinician-educators.