

The CHA Adult Psychiatry Training Program aims to prepare residents for careers as clinicians, educators, and leaders by fostering a collaborative learning environment that emphasizes critical thinking, scholarship, leadership, social justice, humanistic care and a biopsychosociocultural approach to patient care, in the context of population health.