

Welcome to the General Adult Psychiatry Residency Training Program at Zucker Hillside Hospital. Embedded within Northwell Health, one of the nation's leading integrated health systems, and the Donald and Barbara Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra/Northwell, one of the nation's most innovative medical schools, our program provides a remarkable setting and a flexible curriculum for residents to discover their 'calling', design their own individualized path, and launch their careers as outstanding clinicians and emerging leaders.