

Northwestern University – McGaw

Located in the heart of downtown Chicago, the Northwestern adult residency program aspires to train future leaders, educators and researchers in the field of psychiatry and prepare trainees to work within a variety of health systems to deliver evidence-based, multidisciplinary, compassionate care to diverse patient populations. Our core rotations are at Northwestern Medicine, Jesse Brown VA, and Lurie Children's Hospital. The program aims to create a supportive, inclusive culture where residents grow and thrive.