

Indiana University Triple Board

The Triple Board Residency at Indiana University School of Medicine was established in collaboration between the Department of Psychiatry and Department of Pediatrics. This program is offered to medical graduates interested in Pediatrics/Psychiatry/Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Residents in this program learn to think both biologically and psychologically about the child as a whole and to diagnose complex issues.