

Duke University Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship

Why Duke Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences? The two-year Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship ACGME-accredited program features: Excellent teaching and supervision by faculty who are content experts Wide variety of clinical settings and specialty clinics Exceptional consult liaison training at a tertiary children's hospital Extensive opportunities to hone psychotherapy and family therapy skills Exposure to a cutting-edge collaborative care approach Encouragement to pursue individual interests through electives and research Formal mentorship program Engagement in quality improvement projects Intentional focus on fellows' wellness