

Cincinnati Children's Hospital Child & Adolescent Psychiatry

We are the main teaching center for the University of Cincinnati Department of Psychiatry, Division of Child Psychiatry Training Program. In association with Cincinnati Children's, the University of Cincinnati offers one of the most well-established child and adolescent psychiatry training programs in the country. Residents complete three years of training in general psychiatry before joining our Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship Program for two years.