

Creighton University-Omaha Psychiatry Residency Program

The Creighton Psychiatry Residency Training Program is a program with outstanding clinical training in collaboration with our community hospital partners.

Our mission is to train ethical, compassionate, skillful, and competent psychiatrists and to successfully prepare our residents for careers of their choosing in clinical practice, academia, research and/or administration..