

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Michael Greenspan, MD

AADPRT Position: Assessment Committee Chair

Dr. Greenspan is an Assistant Professor at the Donald and Barbara Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra/Northwell, and Program Director of the Psychiatry Residency Training Program at Zucker Hillside Hospital. To pursue his ongoing learning and development as an educator, he has completed the Program for Educators in Health Professions at the Harvard Macy Institute in 2017. Dr. Greenspan received his B.A. Cum Laude in Biology and Economics from Yale College in 1998. He spent one year teaching high school freshman biology at the Paul T. Robeson School of Business and Technology in Brooklyn N.Y. before entering medical school at the Yale University School of Medicine, which he attended from 1999-2004. He completed his residency training in General Psychiatry and fellowship training in Forensic Psychiatry, both at the Yale New Haven Hospital/Yale University School of Medicine. He is a Board Certified General and Forensic Psychiatrist. Prior to joining Northwell, Dr. Greenspan was Associate Program Director of the Forensic Psychiatry Fellowship at Albert Einstein College of Medicine in Bronx, New York. Dr. Greenspan's work has included police de-escalation training and community gun violence prevention. His academic interests include Assessment, Violence Management and Medical Education.