

Indiana University Psychiatry at Vincennes

Indiana University Psychiatry at Vincennes is designed to provide comprehensive broad-based education in clinical psychiatric diagnosis and treatment in a community setting to better prepare psychiatrists for work in integrated health systems, rural, and underserved communities while also striving to contribute to the wider psychiatric community through scholarship. Southwest Indiana Psychiatry based at Good Samaritan Hospital in Vincennes Indiana- one of only 4 hospitals in the state affiliated with a Community Mental Health Center.