

Howard University

A small urban program. It is a university program with a community feel. Howard University has a specific mission of serving marginalized and patient populations with limited resources. It is a HBCU with a historic legacy. It is located in Washington, DC where cultural experiences are limitless.