

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Member Spotlight

Ulrick Vieux, DO, MS

AADPRT Position: APJ Editorial Board

Ulrick Vieux graduated from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2000 after earning a master's degree in Human Nutrition from Columbia University and a bachelor degree in Biology and Society from Cornell University. After earning his medical degree, he completed residencies in Family Medicine at New York Medical College (Brooklyn-Queens campus) and Psychiatry and Child/Adolescent psychiatry at St. Luke's/Roosevelt Hospital Center in Manhattan, NY. He is the founding residency director in psychiatry at the Orange Regional Medical Center in Middletown, NY an affiliate of the NYCOMEC system. Prior to this position he was at the Cambridge Health Alliance in Cambridge, MA working in the school-based program and the medical director of the Children's Community Mental Health Services of Mt. Sinai-St. Luke's hospital system.

He has two children, Sahel (9) and Musa (7 months). His wife is also in the mental health field and they are interested in community service and spending time with family.