

American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training

Biosketch

Anne Ruble, MD

AADPRT Position: Chair, Psychotherapy Committee

Dr. Anne Ruble is Director of Psychotherapy Training and Associate Program Director of the Johns Hopkins Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences Adult Psychiatry Training Program. She completed her undergraduate degree at Kenyon College her medical and M.P.H. training at the Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine. She completed her adult psychiatry residency and a fellowship in mood disorders at Johns Hopkins. She has a community psychiatry outpatient practice at Johns Hopkins Hospital Community Psychiatry Clinic and teaches family therapy to the PGY-3 residents utilizing emotionally focused psychotherapy and attachment. Her interests include best practices in psychotherapy supervision, video-based education for residents, patients, and families, and diversity, equity, and inclusion in psychotherapy. She is currently developing a curriculum for integration of broaching culture, ethnicity, and gender in supportive psychotherapy to strengthen therapeutic alliance between residents and patients. She is the Co-Medical Director for the Broadway Center for Addiction outpatient substance use program and has obtained additional board certification in Addiction Medicine and is also an active member of the AADPRT Addictions Committee.

